

Conference I May 3-4, 2019

Socio-Spatial Dynamics in Southeast Asia

Annual Conference of the Scientific Research Group on Southeast Asia of the German Geographical Society (DGfG)

This year's annual conference of the Scientific Research Group on Southeast Asia addresses a wide range of socio-spatial dynamics in the Southeast Asian context including risk and resilience, mobility and migration, urbanity and rurality. The conference is meant to be a forum where interdisciplinary and international scholars and graduate students meet and share their research findings.
